

Sun, Sea And St Tropez: What's New In France's Glitziest Beach Town?

Starting in town, France's beloved chef with a penchant for pastry and chocolate, Cyril Lignac is opening a boulangerie, while at the seventies-tinged Le Tigrr St Tropez restaurant, you can now swing your mallet on its new croquet ground. Also in town, Homer Lobster is back for a second season serving its succulent signature lobster rolls in soft yet crispy brioche bread. And a restaurant getting a makeover is L'Italien, now GINA's on the port where the consulting chef is three-star Eric Frechon who's putting Italian cuisine starring seafood from your nonna's recipe book on the menu.
